

VOCABULARY

A. Match the situations with the most suitable person

A. TEAMMATES	Planning a weekend trip	F
B. COLLEAGUES	Talking about traditions or family stories	D
C. CLOSE FRIENDS	Solving a problem at work	B
D. GRANDPARENTS	Asking for a day off	E
E. MANAGER	Planning a strategy for an important match	A
F. PARTNER	Giving advice about a personal issue	C

B. Complete the sentences with one of the following concepts.

Get on well with - stay in touch - friendly with - take after - look up to

- I really look up to my older sister. She's brave and hardworking.
- Even though we live in different cities, we stay in touch by video call.
- My brother and I take after our dad. We have the same sense of humor.
- I Get on well with my coworkers; we never argue.
- She's very friendly with her neighbors, so they often invite her over.

C. Choose one personality adjective for each description

- María always arrives on time, finishes her tasks, and keeps her promises.
- Tomás talks loudly, laughs loudly, and never notices when others need quiet.
- Benjamín loves making people laugh and telling jokes.
- Ana tells everyone what to do, even when she isn't in charge.
- Sofía gives her classmates snacks and helps them without expecting anything back.

MARIA

TOMAS

BENJAMIN

ANA

SOFIA

RELIABLE

ANNOYING

FUNNY

BOSSY

HELPFUL

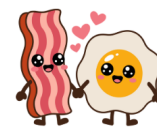

D. Read the sentences and choose the best option.

- He's been responsible / out of work for three months, so he's applying for every job he can find.
- She has the qualifications / wages to apply for the job, but she still needs more experience.
- She's thinking about changing her career / volunteer because she wants a job that feels more meaningful.

E. Write the correct adjectives below the pictures.

ANGRY

IN LOVE

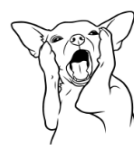

EXHAUSTED

NERVOUS

SLEEPY

TERRIFIED

SILLY

PROUD

CALM

JEALOUS

F. Complete with the correct form of the word in parentheses.

- The movie was really INTERESTING (interest). We didn't want it to end.
- We were SURPRISED (surprise) by how friendly everyone was.
- His explanation was so CONFUSING (confuse). Nobody understood it.
- I felt very TIRED (tire) after working all day.

G. Complete the text with the words from the box.

characters - ending - fairy tales - hero - plot - story teller

FAIRYTALES usually have a simple PLOT with a few important CHARACTERS, including a brave HERO who faces a challenge. A good STORY TELLER makes the adventure exciting and leads the reader toward an ENDING that feels satisfying.

H. Classify the following movies into the different categories.

BIOPIC

DOCUMENTARY

HORROR

ACTION

ROM-COM

GRAMMAR:

A. PRESENT SIMPLE/CONTINUOUS: Circle the correct answer.

1. I don't usually EAT / EATING cakes and cookies. They are too sweet for me.
2. Carlos IS LIKING / LIKES to stay home on weekends. He is usually very tired after work.
3. My friends and I STUDY / ARE STUDYING for our English test right now.
4. Thomas DON'T GO / DOESN'T GO to the gym often. He prefers to workout at home.
5. Carmen ISN'T HAVING / DOESN'T HAVE a fun time at the moment.
6. Andrew WORKS / IS WORKING at a café, called The Coffee, every day.

B. VERB PATTERNS: Change the verb in parentheses to its correct -ING or INFINITIVE FORM.

1. Before COOKING (cook) vegetables, you should make sure you wash them properly.
2. I would really like TO BAKE (bake) a carrot cake tonight.
3. My sister hopes TO TRAVEL (travel) around Asia when she graduates university next year.
4. You should avoid DOING (do) too much exercise after you eat.
5. Max decided TO STAY (stay) and help his family clean up after the party.
6. DRAWING (draw) is such a cool hobby. I wish I could do it better.

C. MODIFIERS: Fill in the spaces with the correct modifier in the box.

QUITE A - LOT MORE - PRETTY - BIT LESS - QUITE

1. I thought that talk about animal evolution was PRETTY interesting.
2. I wish you would talk a BIT LESS. It's starting to get annoying.
3. I had QUITE A long day at work yesterday. There was so much to do.
4. I need to do a LOT MORE work today. I have barely done anything.
5. Amy is QUITE an intimidating person. Her stare is very scary.

D. NARRATIVE TENSES: Complete the sentences with the past simple, past continuous or past perfect of the verb in parenthesis.

1. Last year, I found out that my best friend had gotten (get) married without inviting me.
2. As I was walking (walk) my dog, my brother and his girlfriend were cooking (cook) dinner for the family.
3. Yesterday, I went (go) to the store, met (meet) with my boyfriend and then we ate (eat) at a Greek restaurant.
4. We were watching (watch) a movie when the lights suddenly turned off.
5. I was really hungry after exercising in the evening because I hadn't eaten (not/eat) since this morning.
6. Last night, I didn't finish (not/finish) reading my book because I fell asleep.

E. PRESENT PERFECT / PAST SIMPLE:

1. Rachel has never been (never/be) to Germany before.
2. Last year, my family and I visited (visit) Australia and New Zealand.
3. Yesterday, I had (have) sushi for dinner. It was delicious.
4. I have lived (live) in Chile since 2018.
5. Pedro wasn't (not/be) very happy last Tuesday. He got a bad grade on his test.
6. One of my college friends is an author. She has written (write) 2 books so far. She is planning on writing many more.

F. PREPOSITIONS OF TIME: Circle the correct answer.

1. Hey! Let's meet ___ Saturday. We can go to the mall then.
a. at b. in c. on
2. The movie starts ___ 19:30. Please be on time.
a. at b. during c. in
3. Our lunch break is ___ 13:00 and 14:00.
a. until b. between c. before
4. ___ the early 2000s, people really liked to listen to Britney Spears.
a. After b. Until c. During
5. My boyfriend and I are going on vacation ___ September of next year.
a. on b. in c. at