adjectives and modifiers

4A Work in pairs and read the sentences. Find four adjectives.

- 1 My weekend was very nice. nice
- 2 It was quite good.
- 3 My weekend was boring.
- 4 It was a bit crowded.

B Work in pairs. Find three modifiers in the sentences in Ex 4A.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. My weekend was very nice. | 3. My weekend was boring. |
| 2. It was quite good. | 4. It was a bit crowded. |

Adjectives

We use adjectives before nouns.

Berlin is a large city. NOT ~~a city large~~.

We use adjectives after the verbs be, look and feel.

The film was great.

Those jeans look nice.

I feel hungry.

We use too + adjective for a problem.

This city is too noisy. I can't sleep.

We use a bit with negative ideas or adjectives.

It's a bit boring. NOT ~~It's a bit good~~.

We don't use and between adjectives.

We've got a fantastic new car. NOT ~~a fantastic and new car~~.

We never use plural adjectives.

Have you got any black shoes? NOT ~~blacks shoes~~.

7 A Read the email about Ian's weekend. What did he do?

Dear Joel,

I'm sorry you were ill at the weekend. You missed a great concert! I went to the concert with Gina and Sam. The place was a bit crowded and very loud. I know that's quite normal for a concert, but for me it was too much – too much noise, too many people. The band was really amazing and I'm glad that I went. As I said, you missed an excellent concert, but we missed you too!

After the concert we had a late dinner at Jerry's Burger Joint. Their hamburgers are the best! Then we went to my apartment and chatted for an hour or two, and played some online games. I really enjoyed that.

I hope you feel better. Maybe you can come with us another time!

Ian

He went to a concert, had dinner at a restaurant, chatted with friends and played online games.

- B Read the email again. How many modifier + adjective pairs can you find?
- C Write an email to a friend about a recent weekend. Choose one key event to write about. Answer the questions in Ex 5B.
